

PAULO e RALF

Two strangers strolling through a village...they stop and watch a musician playing. They invite him to a little cosy event to celebrate their wedding. Suddenly the groom decides to try playing the cajon.

After playing a few songs something magical happens. And since then they have played music together.

They are: PAULO e RALF

It became a friendship since 2015 now. The two of them still live the music and together they play in their „rough perfection“ what it makes interesting and credible. Paulos unique and recognizable voice, the acoustic guitar and Ralfs groovy cajon rhythms – together it becomes something special!

Unplugged the well attuned duo delighted all friends of livemusic.

Be a witness of one of this wonderful evenings in a relaxed atmosphere!

PAULO e RALF now touring with his their concept around Germany and playing concerts in different locations, pubs, bars and events.
